Intermediate term policy package for Indian capital goods sector

1143. SHRI SUNIL BASU RAY: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have received an intermediate term policy package for Indian capital goods sector from International Bank for Reconstruction and Development during January, 1990;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof;

(c) whether Government have accepted it; and

(d) if the answer to part (c) above be in the affirmative, what are the reasons therefor and what would be the likely impact of the "package" on Indian economy?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (PROF. MADHU DANDAVATE): (a) to (d) World Bank staff prepared a Study on India's Capital Goods Sector. The Study suggests an intermediate term policy package for the sector which includes policy adjustments in areas of trade and tax, domestic regulation, technology and public enterprises. This Staff study is a document of the Bank and the Bank has not specifically recommended and Policy Package on Capital Goods Sector.
